

ACTIVITIES OF SOJOURNERS AT THE WINTER RESORTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Carols Sung by Children on Lawn at Hot Springs

Santa Claus Dashes Down Mountain in Sleigh—Sojourners at Resort.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
HOT SPRINGS, Va., Dec. 24.—The holidays at the Homestead are marked by a number of old time customs. The great hall is hung with garlands and decorated with Christmas plants and flowers. At the end of the hall is placed a huge fir tree, gay with old fashioned ornaments.

Last night village children sang carols on the lawn beside an illuminated fir tree, and the appearance of Santa Claus, who dashed down the mountain side in a sleigh, modified to suit the mild climatic conditions of this Allegheny valley in which snow plays so insignificant a part. A specially arranged dinner always marks Christmas Day in the Homestead, and a special concert; also a very late film is shown in the theatre.

Mr. Frederick L. Cox of the Interstate Commerce Commission, who is convalescent after the recent wreck at the Manhattan Transfer, was joined on Thursday by Mrs. Cox and their family for the holiday period.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll W. Laird arrived early in the week from New York to pass their honeymoon here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carson came in on Monday from Greenwich, Conn. Other arrivals of the week include Messrs. R. G. Bryman of New York, Henry Holland of Boston, John E. Sutcliffe of Philadelphia, Hiram Hingham, J. P. Baker and C. M. Hakevall of New Haven.

The Baron and Baroness Rosenkrantz are to remain at Roseloe until after the holidays and then will start for New York to sail early in January on board the Olympic for France, where they will pass the winter, principally in Cannes and Monte Carlo.

Miss Helen Norris, daughter of Commander James Avery Norris and Mrs. Norris, and who is to be married on December 28 to Mr. A. Carlton McKenney, was entertained at tea by Miss Nancy Cowardin.

Mrs. Zachary Tinker is remaining at Idlewood until early in January. She gave a luncheon to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Bogert of New York gave a dinner on Tuesday at Idlewood.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Read were entertained at tea in the Homestead by Miss Christine W. Biddle before they started for New York. Miss Biddle later returned to her home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Henry P. Gardner left for Washington to make a brief visit before returning to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Murdock started for New York by automobile.
